following comments physical condition Crown Prince Faisal:

1. Inability eat and tendency lose weight occurs about once in eight times in such cases. Only remedy is wait and see.
2. Faisal has now "turned corner". He is eating regularly, several times daily, enjoying food and gaining weight.
3. He is physically in condition to carry job, particularly if can find some reliable assistants at secretarial and ministerial levels.
4. Prognosis is that his life expectancy now good. Unless other unforeseen factors appear, should live several years.

4. King wanted to re-emphasize that Egyptian Army officers would never return as instructors for Saudi Army. Egyptians came to give training help but when recent misunderstanding arose between the two countries Egyptians withdrew their officers. US on other hand volunteered training and did not ask for help in return but gave instruction in order aid Saudi Arabia, and American training mission would remain.
